MISSION

The Iosco-Arenac District Library system is committed to providing welcoming spaces that meet the diverse needs of our communities by offering quiet areas for reflection and exploration, opportunities for connection, and resources for technology, research, and creativity. As we aim to support everyone in their pursuit of knowledge and lifelong learning, we also prioritize our employees' growth by investing in their development to foster a positive work environment. This approach creates vibrant community hubs that encourage growth and connection for all.
